We use a third party credit reference agency for credit assessment purposes.

In submitting a request to open a credit account, you are hereby providing us with your consent to carry out any credit reference searches that we deem necessary to support your application.

These searches will be taken for credit information purposes only, and may be carried out on both your company and its Principals.

The credit reference agency may also keep a record of our enquiry and share that information with other businesses that may also make enquiries about the company and its Principals.

This does not affect your statutory rights.
